Forensic nursing emphasizes collection of evidence and provision of acute care to victims of violence. The “Upstream Adage” parable has been used to identify activities that can be applied to the care of victims. Forensic nurses can expand their practice activities into an “upstream” focus by targeting communities and individuals at different levels of risk

Casting FOREWORD

This third edition is an invaluable guide for both novice and expert casting staff. It provides a useful overview of the relevant anatomy and the injuries/conditions for which casting may be an appropriate treatment. This is essential knowledge for those casting if they are to understand the rationale for care.
