Missionary Stories with the Millers by Mildred A. Martin ...

The beginning of the book is a nice fictional story of the Millers, and the children ask to hear more stories of missionaries. After that, each story stands alone and is a truthful account (with details added to make for a complete story.) They are wonderfully written; we shed tears many times. They are factual, and also touch the heart. Better than any other missionary stories we've read! Only a few pages for each missionary, and there are many included.
